CONTENT

The content of this manual was taken from the resource materials listed. It is expected that you will have read the applicable articles prior to arriving at the Officer Rank Qualification Course.

The display of competence in drill movements is recognized as an indication of highly trained, well disciplined, professional Officers. When in public we are ambassadors of the Navy League of Canada and all that it stands for. Drill that is well taught and executed develops individual pride, mental alertness, precision and esprit-de-corps which will assist the individual Navy League Cadet or Officer in carrying out his/her orders instinctively. It is important that Officers maintain a high level of personal deportment and drill standards as you are always under the impressionable eyes of your cadets. They will mimic your movements, so beware of the untold lessons you are teaching your cadets.
